

Human Rights Policy

SciCorp is steadfast in its commitment to upholding and promoting human rights throughout its operations and value chain. We believe that respect for human rights is fundamental to the well-being of individuals, communities, and the broader society. This aligns with Ontario government regulations and adheres to the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights.

Scope

This applies to all SciCorp employees, contractors, suppliers, and business partners, as well as interactions with clients and communities impacted by our operations.

Objectives

- Foster a culture of respect and equality, free from discrimination, harassment, and abuse.
- Uphold international human rights principles and ensure that human rights considerations are integrated into all aspects of SciCorp's operations and decision-making processes.
